"Kadinka the dinosaur"

Once upon a time there was an aeroplane.
A dinosaur came called Katinka, she was eating biscuits, ginger biscuits. A unicorn came. The unicorn took the biscuits.
She ran after her. Katinka ran after the unicorn and caught her in her net.
Katinka took the unicorn to London.
There was fire! They hid in the egg. They were safe, the golden egg had wheels and they were driving away,
"broom!" They go to another London place. They went to Buckingham Palace.
They went inside, they found the queen!
They had biscuits with her. They found the golden keys and took them.
They found a crown. The dinosaur put the crown on his head.
That's the end!
